About Me

I am practically a Tech Geek. Technology, Graphic Designing, Photography, Web Designing and Social Communication are my fields of Interest. I spend my day reading Technology Magazine, and play around with new Apps and Gadgets. Currently I am also freelance Beta App tester for WhatsApp, Viber, UC Browser and VLC.

I also love to capture images from day to day life and try to render them immortal. I love to promote Kolkata, Bengal and the rich Bengali Culture to the whole world. I like playing with Programming Codes and create new methods. I am always learning from things around me.
